Welcome / Croeso Summer 2011 at The Riverfront

We have a diverse and exciting programme of events coming up this season. From our regular monthly and weekly events such as comedy, cinema, workshops, lunchtime events, art exhibitions, open mic night and boutique market, through to some incredible dance (Protein, Ballet Cymru), University of Wales, Newport events (Fashion Show, Creative Sound and Music and more), as well as all of our summer holiday workshops for young people.

We'll also welcome back Tin Shed Theatre Company with their performance of Taxi (literally in the back of a Taxi!) which premiered at Comedy Port last year. It proved so popular that we thought we'd bring it back for those who didn't get to see it.

We look forward to seeing you during the summer months here at The Riverfront.

OPEN MIC / MARKET

On The Edge

Now in its 7th successful year!

Michael Kelligan returns with his On The Edge project of script-held performances of new and well known plays from Wales under the title The Great and The Good.

The Perplexing Puzzle of the Pedigree Pet and The Policeman

Of course Holmes and Watson do not remain perplexed for long but seeing them on this case they appear in a guise that you have never seen them in before. They do get a bit dogged down on their journey. Lexicographer Victor has sprinkled his script with sparkling dialogue and intriguing phrases, twists and turns and hilarious surprises. You may leave the theatre perplexed and puzzled but laughter will accompany you home.

Where Does The Laughter Come From

Following the acclaimed success of the National Theatre of Wales' The Dark Philosophers here the playwright himself, Gwyn Thomas gives us some of the secrets of his life and laughter. Played by Cardiff based actor Jam Thomas who was recently seen in the film Mr Nice with Rhys Ifans. He has also appeared in Torchwood, High Hopes, Y Prys and many other TV productions. Playwright Gwynne Edwards' translation of The House of Bernada Alba was used by Theatre Pena in their wonderful production presented at The Riverfront in 2009.

MUSIC

The Nick Ross Orchestra

Sounds of the Glenn Miller Era

The lights soften, the mood settles. An audience waits for that first moment of sound. The Big Band is poised, relaxed, but with eyes anxious for the lead. Then, as if giving body to an echo, the murmured notes of 'Moonlight Serenade'...and the night, it seems, is suddenly full and timeless.

There are those who watch and listen who tap a shy finger to the melodies, others who follow with a silent foot-beat, still others who murmur softly through the lyrics, and those who simply permit a fleeting smile. But common to all are memories.

Recapture the sounds of a bygone era as the Nick Ross Orchestra presents an unmissable evening of music and song - the Classic Big Band Sound of the 1940s.

LOL

Presented by Luca Silvestrini's Protein

Known for turning the everyday into witty and profound dance theatre, Luca Silvestrini's award-winning Protein return with a timely new piece of physical theatre where love, wanting and connectedness take centre stage.

Logging on to our lives online, LOL (lots of love) delves into the world of electronic communication to uncover the evolutionary shift that social networking and the internet have had upon the way we live, love one another and belong to society in general. With video animation by Rachel Davies, lighting by Jackie Shemesh – co-creators of Protein's Dear Body – and with original music by Andy Pink, LOL (lots of love) mixes social comment, provocative humour and engaging performances.

Commissioned by Dance East, Greenwich Dance and The Place and supported by South Hill Park Arts Centre, Bracknell.

The Searchers

With such classic hits as 'Sweets For My Sweet'; 'Needles and Pins'; 'Don't Throw Your Love Away' and 'When You Walk In The Room', The Searchers have contributed enormously to establishing the UK as the world's leading nation in the music industry.

With total record sales well in excess of 40 million, their recent compilation album, 'The Very Best of The Searchers', which includes all of their hits, has seen a recent welcome and deserved return to the UK charts.

No doubt the decade that gave us The Beatles, The Searchers and many others, was unique and pervades all cultural and age barriers today.

Chas & Dave

Together Again - The Final Tour

Dave has decided to come out of retirement for one final tour. The show will be the whole history of Chas & Dave.

The first half of the gig will consist of Chas & Dave's pub set ending with Gertcha in 1979. The start of their success. The second half will feature all their hits since then.

Chas & Dave began writing and performing songs together in 1972, having been friends since the early 60's.

Chas & Dave are great musicians and know how to give an audience a good time. They have gained a cult audience of both young and old and due to public demand they are about to be seen together on stage once more.

Little Red Hen 3+

Presented by Stuff and Nonsense Theatre Company with Salisbury Playhouse

An early learning classic for ages 3 - 7 and parents too.

"Who will help me plant these grains of wheat?"

"Not I!" said the Pig. "Not I!" said the Rat.

"Not I!" said the Cow.

"Fair enough", said the Little Red Hen, "I'll do it myself!"

Making bread is hard work, but it would be a lot easier if the lazy farm yard animals lent a hand! An adaptation of the nursery favourite, featuring a host of animal puppets, sing-along songs and comic routines. It's a treat for the whole family with no scary bits!

New Student Writing 16+

This year the University of Wales, Newport presents two short plays by Creative Writing Students in their annual season of best new writing. You'll see both plays in one evening.

In the Land of My Poverty

By Jemma Smith, directed by Richard Redman

Pete, Nicky, Slimer and Little Johnny are typical under-16s... they harass the elderly, steal from off-licences, get stoned and brag about sex. You might cross the road to avoid them if they hung out on your street corner, but this provocative new play reveals that beneath their masks of anti-social attitudes these boys are vulnerable and frightened children.

The Visitor

By Martyn Caira, directed by Vanessa Dodd

Tony is a content young man. He has his own home, a steady job, a fiancée whom he loves and a close friend as his lodger. His security is threatened however by the arrival of an unwelcome visitor. Initially seeming benign and respectable, the visitor starts to introduce doubts into Tony's mind about his lodger. Is his lodger after his home and his job? Is he a rival for the affections of his fiancée?

Ovid's Metamorphoses

Pants On Fire

Pants On Fire's award winning, sell-out actor-musician extravaganza relocates Roman mythology to 1940's wartime Britain. Blending puppetry, projection, live original music and song, gasmasks and a gramophone, Ovid's Metamorphoses is an exploration of man's inextricable link with nature and the universe. At a time when the earth is beginning another metamorphosis, and humankind finds itself on the brink of change, these prescient ancient myths strike a poignant chord.

The Manfreds

Top British R&B band Manfred Mann scored their 1st UK Top 10 hit in 1964 with '5-4-3-2-1', which became the signature tune for Britain's popular music TV show 'Ready Steady Go'. Further hits followed with 'Do Wah Diddy', 'Sha La La', 'If You Gotta Go' and 'Pretty Flamingo'.

When lead singer Paul Jones left to pursue a solo career in 1966, he was replaced by Mike d'Abo, and with this new line-up Manfred Mann scored some of their biggest European hits...such as 'Ha! Ha! Said the Clown', 'Mighty Quinn', 'Fox on the Run' and 'My Name is Jack' to name but a few. When the group disbanded in 1969, several members pursued individual music careers until they reformed as The Manfreds in 1992.

Today, The Manfreds' musical reputation is unrivalled - not only do they enjoy massive worldwide popularity, but they retain many original members from the 1960s line-up, including the singers featured on all their hits.

Beauty and The Beast

Ballet Cymru

"Critics Circle Award" winning company Ballet Cymru (formerly Independent Ballet Wales) present a sparkling and refreshing ballet based on the eternal fairy tale.

A ruined merchant, lost and desperate in a deep forest; an exquisite garden by a magical palace; an enchanted Beast, furious and lonely; a promise to the merchant's youngest daughter, Beauty: a perfect red rose - so the scene is set for the greatest love story ever told. Original Choreography. Expressive Costumes. Stunning Sets.

Now Ballet Cymru bring to life this timeless story using the company's unique blend of classical technique and storytelling.

Beauty and the Beast is a brand new ballet featuring choreography by Creative Wales Award winner Darius James, sets and costumes by some of the most creative artists in Wales and a brand new score by Welsh composer David Westcott. Ballet Cymru are a young, vital group of dancers who are pushing back the barriers of classical ballet. Using powerful and timeless stories the company challenges its dancers to interpret some of the finest characters in literature.

Gypsy, Roma and Traveller History Event

Following on from an incredibly successful event last year The Riverfront becomes the main focus for the annual celebration of Gypsy, Roma and Traveller culture in Wales in 2011.

An event for all ages and all tastes combines history and art, theatre and dance, children's and adult performances designed to challenge, teach and celebrate!

Younger children will explore GRT tradition through Vardo (Waggon) painting workshops and traditional storytelling.

Young people will be exploring who the 'Gypsies' really are with Save the Children and SEWREC, while Show Racism the Red Card have a fun and challenging workshop in mind.

For adults the first public performance of Isaac Blake's 'Coin si deya? Coin se dado?' (Who's Your Mother? Who's Your Father?), a piece set in both dream and consciousness using these as metaphors for the romantic image, followed by the annual GRT History Month Lecture.

Plus performances by young people from dance and animation projects in Newport and Cardiff and an exhibition of this year's winning entries in the annual poster competition.

Workshops Celebration

Lots of free fun activities for all the family!

Try your hand at arts and crafts with a variety of free, hands on activities or join in one of the taster dance or music classes on offer throughout the day.

There will also be free performances from a selection of the weekly workshops that take place at The Riverfront throughout the year, including: Youth Theatre, Dance and Music and will include various groups from Rubicon.

www.newport.gov.uk/theriverfront

Rubicon

20 years ago, Rubicon Dance - the community dance development organisation for Cardiff and Newport - launched its full time preliminary dance training course, in response to the demand from dancers who wanted to explore the artform fully. The course grew, as did the demand and has now become fully accredited and for the first time this year, we have offered a second year's training, so that students who want to can spend a more intensive year developing their technique.

Tonight's performance is just a sample of the work the students have been developing over the last year, with styles from Jazz, hip hop and the more classical contemporary dance, it celebrates their creativity, hard work and commitment to Rubicon.

Sinfonia Cymru

Sinfonia Cymru brings to The Riverfront a truly special programme of chamber orchestral music. Joining the orchestra will be the stunningly talented cellist Philip Higham, a former member of the orchestra and current Young Concert Artists Trust recipient.

Philip is rapidly emerging as one of the most prominent young cellists from the UK as his recent competition success, winning 2nd Prize at the prestigious 2010 Grand Prix Emanuel Feuermann Competition in Berlin, goes to confirm. In 2008 he won 1st Prize in the International Bach Competition in Leipzig and in 2009 1st Prize in the Lutoslawski Competition in Warsaw.

Created by the in-house Hip-Hop producer and DJ, Winchester, The Pentalk Lab at The Riverfront's Recording Studio is used regularly by musicians, producers, DJs, MCs and singers.

DJ Winchester has recently completed a 2010 European tour with Akil The MC from the legendary hip-hop group Jurassic 5. He has rocked stages with Krs1, Craig-G, Souls of Mischief, Soweto Kinch, and Miss Dynamite. He also works and supports his community by working on music projects with local people here at The Riverfront. Winchester is chairman of BBoy Wales and in 2010, he gave Newport its very first Hip Hop festival.

The Pentalk Lab offers the following services:

- Record and mix your songs; record and produce your mixtape/CD; record your backing tracks
- Provide music production; tape/vinyl to CD reproduction; two engineers who can support any genre of music from Hip-Hop to Rock, Indie to Funk

The Pentalk Lab also offers workshops for customers of all ages and abilities, including; DJ, Hip-Hop production, MC or Remix workshops. You can also book a Recording Experience for a group to celebrate a special occasion and the rehearsal room is also available to hire for band practice.

For more information about using the Recording Studio, rehearsal space and Pentalk Lab, please get in touch with Jamie on;

The Riverfront Café

Enjoy a lunch, a pre-theatre meal and drink or just a relaxing cup of coffee in an arts environment with views across the River Usk at The Riverfront Café.

The café is located overlooking the river on the ground floor of the building, spilling onto an outside terrace and serving a wide range of hot and cold snacks and beverages. Pre-theatre meals and special occasions from birthday parties to business lunches can also be catered for.

Menu

- We can cater for many dietary needs, including vegetarian and vegan.
- You can enjoy a light snack with a wide selection of sandwiches, baguettes, creative salads, soups and handmade cakes on offer.
- Or for a hungrier tummy, you could be tempted by a fresh main meal or a homemade daily special.

The menu changes daily, so if you would like to know in more detail what will be on offer on the day of your visit or would like to pre-book a meal, then please call The Riverfront Café on 01633 656685 or email riverfront.cafe@newport.gov.uk

Interval Drinks

The licensed café also serves theatre-goers with pre-show and interval drinks. As it serves a wide range of cold drinks, bottled beers, spirits and wines, make sure that you order your interval drink before the show starts so that you can enjoy it at leisure rather than joining the queue!

Opening Hours

Monday - Saturday 10am - 6pm (9.30pm on show nights).

Corporate Membership

The Riverfront provides an exciting opportunity for your business to promote itself to a large audience for a relatively small cost. For just £500 a year, your organisation can become a Corporate Club Member and entertain your clients, promote your business objectives, enjoy theatre at its very best and receive the following benefits:

- Acknowledgement of your membership with your organisation's logo displayed, in the season brochure, on the website and in the foyer.
- You will get first look at the season brochure giving a short priority booking period.
- You will be offered exclusive discounted tickets (for all types of show) for at least four events a season for your staff and/or clients.
- Invitations to at least two Corporate Networking Events a year.

The Riverfront Corporate Friends

If you are a small business or an ambitious individual who likes to network, becoming a Corporate Friend could be the key to your success. An individual membership of the Corporate Friends costs just £50 a year.

Please call Michelle Perez on 01633 656674 or email on michelle.perez@newport.gov.uk for more information on both schemes.

We would like to thank our existing Corporate Club Members:

The Riverfront is owned, managed and funded by Newport City Council and was awarded a lottery grant by the Arts Council of Wales towards the construction of the building and a grant by the Welsh Assembly Government towards the construction of the purpose built gallery and preservation and conservation of the mediaeval ship.

Recognised as a Regional Performing Arts Centre by the Arts Council of Wales.

Access

The Riverfront aims to be accessible and welcoming to all and we are committed to making your visit as easy and enjoyable as possible. Though it is not essential, disabled people are advised to book in advance so we can readily provide any assistance. Disabled people may also bring a personal assistant for free. Contact the Box Office for details.

- There are two reserved parking spaces for blue badge holders at all times and four extra spaces available in the evenings. These spaces cannot be reserved.

- Lift access, wheelchair access and toilet facilities accessible on all levels.

- Assistance dogs are welcomed and can be cared for during performances by arrangement.

- An infra-red transmission system is available in the main and studio theatre spaces and the best quality of sound is through a headset. If you prefer to use the T switch on your hearing aid, you will need to wear an induction loop aerial around your neck. You can borrow both items from the Box Office.

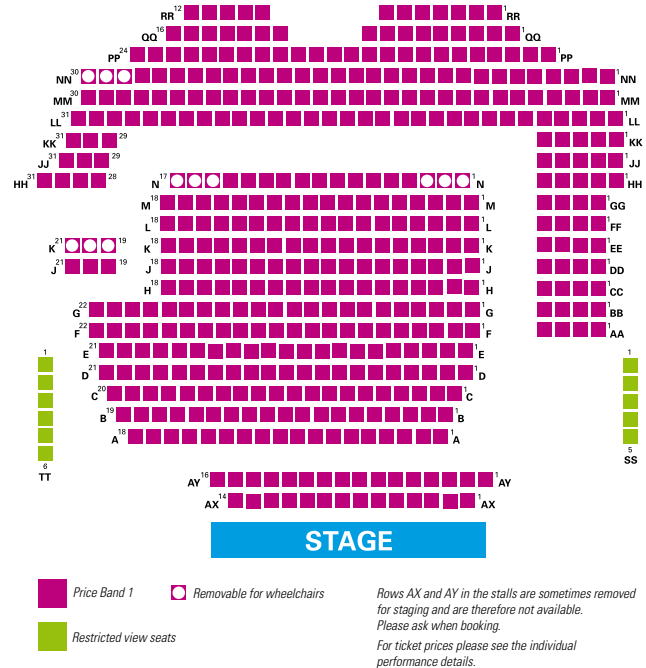

- Copies of this brochure are available in Braille, large print and audio formats on request from The Riverfront, just call 01633 656677 or email the.riverfront@newport.gov.uk

Data Protection

The Riverfront is committed to upholding the Data Protection principles of good information handling practice. When processing your booking, the box office will ask for your name, address and telephone number. Please let us know if you would like to be kept informed about forthcoming events at The Riverfront or other events happening in the region when contacting the Box Office.

Seating Plan for Theatre

This is a typical seating plan but not all shows have one price for all seats. Selected shows may use up to three pricing options. Please ask box office for clarification if needed.

All information is correct at time of going to press, however The Riverfront reserves the right to alter or cancel events without notice if required.
